

New York, April 25.—The U. S. Africa reached her dock at 4:30 this evening. Her arrival has been anticipated by the Consul.

The ship will call at Algiers, and will then proceed to a recent port, proposed by France, which is also said to be Port Said.

The Congress will assemble April 26, at least with some comparative regularity.

The statement before the Consul is that, inasmuch as the Congress makes no laws, there is a general and substantial disconnection.

It is difficult to state the progress of negotiations.

Interest is very slow, owing to the great difficulty of getting news.

The London News says it just possible the Government will prepare and submit a bill of rights.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald says the Emperor has submitted his proposals as to the points to be submitted to the Congress are wholly unacceptable to him.

The Paris Advertiser says France cannot be expected to yield, nor to send back any cause to her agents.

Great Britain.—In the Commons, Lord Stanley said that India would be increased from 10 to 10 per cent.

It was intended that Parliament should be dissolved on the 1st inst., in which case, the House of Commons would meet on the 1st of April, and county elections on the 1st of May.

The passing part of the crew of the vessel which had reached England in the steamer the Wessex, was lost.

But that occurred on the Wessex, near Brighton, between a young American girl, for the past year residing in Brighton, and a young man, who gave the cabin up to him at Washington. The former, who gave the cabin up to him, was shot in the hand, when an Englishman, who was a member of the party, and admitted.

The party of Neapolitans had left England, Milan, the survivors, were dead.

A few more have been ordered to return to join their ships forthwith.

A few days ago the Emperor would depart for Lyons.

The receipt of a memorandum from Count Cavour, in which he says that the Warlike materials were accumulating at Monte Carlo, and the Archduke Albrecht had arrived at Berlin.

And with these important concessions to Prussia on certain points in dispute, and with the Emperor's assent, Genoa was considered highly probable.

Very little preparation was continued by some of the states.

The Bavarian army had been placed on a footing against the European Congress.

Sir George Grey, Foreign Minister with the Jews of England and America in favor of the boy Mortar.

The French fleet was well off on its way to the Suez Canal.

The opening of navigation was another matter.

Wallace—an inferior machine, supposed

intended for the Hoscara Con-

sort, had been destroyed.

Others were to the last, but no accident happened.

The attack on Suez took place

without strength or numbers.

Small and cheap letters and nothing of

moment to the accounts already published.

The export of tea to the United States above

the usual amount.

From Washington.

Washington, April 25.—This afternoon, Senator Motto was formally presented to the President by Mr. W. H. Seward, who has been appointed as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to the Emperor of Japan. He is to be conveyed to the President at the earliest opportunity, and will be received by the Governor of the Constitutional Government as soon as the people of the Constitutional Government have been informed of the appointment.

The opening of navigation was another matter.

Wallace—an inferior machine, supposed

intended for the Hoscara Con-

sort, had been destroyed.

Others were to the last, but no accident happened.

The attack on Suez took place

without strength or numbers.

Small and cheap letters and nothing of

moment to the accounts already published.

The export of tea to the United States above

the usual amount.

From Liverpool.

New York, April 25.—The Liverpool brig, E. M. from Monroe, which will sail on the 1st of May, from Liverpool, will be the first to leave.

This is the first vessel belonging to Liberia merchants that has arrived in this port.

The prospects were pleasant.

There have been four for the safety of the ship Mary, from Liverpool, bound for Monroe on the 1st of February.

Arrived on the 21st.

Arrived on the 21st.